

Program Manager Vacancy

Center for Economic and Social Development (CESD) seeks a capable candidate to work as a program manager for rural development program.

Requirements and Qualifications:

A potential candidate must have at least master's degree or higher in a relevant discipline such as economics, accounting, public finance, social work, academic writing, or other social sciences. The candidate must have experience and knowledge of institutional change, policy reform, and capacity development challenges, and demonstrate leadership, project management, and teamwork skills.

Azerbaijani and English are required for the candidate, knowledge of other languages is desirable.

The main job responsibilities of the candidate who will be selected as a full-time employee are to participate in conducting research, to play a role in the organization of trainings, as well as relevant conferences.

Candidates should submit a CV reflecting relevant education and capabilities and also a letter of interest covering their interests and qualifications to nigarislamli@cesd.az by 14.10.2026.

All applicants must put the job title in the subject line of the email.

Additional information can be obtained from the website www.cesd.az. Please do not make phone calls.